President's Message / Le mot du président

The Society of Canadian Artists is a national organization with a mandate to foster and celebrate the visual arts in all areas of Canada. Your Board of Directors strives to meet this mandate. We recently held another Strategic Planning Session. Plans for expansion and for shows across our country are underway. But all members can help by joining one of the Standing Committees. Just visit our website to find contact information for the committee that most interests you. You will find the site is constantly changing with the involvement of our webmaster, Ann Kruzelecky.

This year the SCA members' show is at the 150-year-old Halifax Club and features 76 paintings from 65 artists from across Canada. The artworks include oils, acrylics, watercolours, pastel, pencil drawings, mixed media, encaustics, textile and photography. Artistic styles range from realism to abstraction, plus everything in between. This show is a feast for the eyes and the soul. I hope many of you can attend. I would like to thank everyone involved in advertising, jurying, hanging and administering the show. Without Andrea Pottyondy's patience, perseverance and hard work, this show would not have been possible. I would also like to thank Steve Wilson, Ed Huner, Peter Gough, Anna Horsnell Wade, Monika Wright and Jacqueline Steudler for their involvement. And I sincerely thank the artists, who have shipped their art pieces across the country, for their participation.

This newsletter includes exciting news from many of our members. Your art is food for the soul of Canada.

Josy Britton, SCA, President

La Société des artistes canadiens est un organisme national ayant pour mandat de promouvoir et de célébrer les arts visuels dans toutes les régions du Canada. Votre Conseil d'Administration s'efforce de répondre à ce mandat. Nous avons récemment tenu une nouvelle séance de planification stratégique. Des projets d'expansion et des expositions à travers le pays sont planifiés. Tous les membres peuvent aider en adhérant à l'un ou l'autre des comités permanents. Il suffit de visiter notre site Internet pour trouver les informations et les personnes ressources pour adhérer au comité qui vous intéresse. Vous verrez que notre site est en constante évolution grâce à la participation de notre webmaster, Ann Kruzelecky.

Cette année, l'exposition des membres de la SAC se tient au «Halifax Club», un édifice vieux de 150 ans. On y présente 76 tableaux de 65 artistes provenant de partout au Canada. Les œuvres exposées sont de divers médiums (huile, acrylique, aquarelle, pastel, crayon, dessin, techniques mixtes, encaustique, textile, photographie) et rallient tous les styles, allant du réalisme à l'abstraction. Ce spectacle est un régal pour les yeux et l'âme. J'espère que plusieurs d'entre vous pourront y assister. Je tiens à remercier toutes les personnes impliquées dans la mise en œuvre de cette exposition (publicité, jury, administration, accrochage, etc.). Sans la patience, la persévérance et le travail acharné d'Andrea Pottyondy, cette exposition n'aurait pas été possible. Je voudrais aussi remercier Steve Wilson, Ed Huner, Peter Gough, Anna Horsnell Wade, Monika Wright et Jacqueline Steudler pour leur implication. Finalement, je remercie chaleureusement les artistes de partout au Canada, qui ont expédié leurs œuvres et qui ont fait de cet événement un succès.

Ce bulletin comprend des nouvelles passionnantes de bon nombre de nos membres. Votre contribution artistique est une nourriture pour l'âme du Canada.

SOCIETY OF CANADIAN ARTISTS ELECTED MEMBERS EXHIBIT AT THE HALIFAX CLUB, SEPTEMBER 30TH, 2012

The Society of Canadian Artists (SCA) will hold an Elected Members Art Exhibit at The Halifax Club from September 30th until December 31st, 2012, in celebration of The Halifax Club's 150th Anniversary. The SCA, at 55 years old, is in awe of the Halifax Club's 150-year history and is proud to have its members show at this prestigious venue during the Halifax Club's anniversary celebrations.

Tracing its roots back to 1957, the SCA was officially founded in Toronto in 1972, and today is a proud national, non-profit artists' organization born to foster and celebrate visual art in Canada. The Society represents over 300 of the country's most committed traditional and new media artists who work in a variety of styles and media. Acceptance as an elected member is through a process of adjudication.

The official opening reception for the exhibit will take place on Sunday, September 30th from 2pm to 6pm at the Halifax Club, 1682 Hollis Street. Members of the Halifax Club and the public are welcome to attend this very unique opportunity to view and purchase artwork from across Canada. SCA artists will be in attendance and are always happy to speak with art enthusiasts and collectors.

Each artwork in the exhibit was selected by jury from submissions received from across Canada. Special awards of merit will also be presented to select artworks at the opening event. The three jurors were artist Wayne Boucher BFA RCA, Ward Skinner, Treasurer and Past President of the Halifax Club, and SCA Director Dorothy Chisholm.

The show features 76 outstanding paintings by 65 artists including Uli Ostermann from British Columbia, Brent Laycock from Alberta, Andrew Sookrah and Kelly Borgers from Ontario, Raymond Quenneville from Quebec, Ann Balch from New Brunswick and Marina Fregeau from Nova Scotia. The artworks include oils, acrylics, watercolours, pastel, pencil drawings, mixed media, encaustics, textile and photography. Artistic styles range from realism to abstraction, plus everything in between.

"One of the SCA's goals is to grow our membership in Atlantic Canada," explains Andrea Pottyondy, SCA member and Atlantic Regional Representative. "Having an elected members exhibit in Halifax will bring recognition to the SCA in this region."

During the three month long exhibit, the SCA will also feature art lectures at Halifax Club's "Lunch & Learn" sessions.

Friday, October 12

Nova Scotia SCA member Joy Snihur Wyatt Laking presents
"An Art Project in Remote Bolivia."

Tuesday, October 30

SCA Director Naomi Levine and SCA Vice-President Peter Gough will speak on
"What is Art? The Value of Art and Collecting Art."

Thursday, November 15

Nova Scotia SCA member Dawn Josey presents "Research to Artwork."

The SCA cultivates a community for artists through exhibitions, workshops, lectures and communications. It recognizes the highest qualities in art through a program of awards and organizes and administers public exhibitions. The SCA provides leadership within the arts community in Canada through the encouragement of original, artistic expression and experimentation in all media and all visual art forms.

Ed Huner, SCA will be curating and installing the exhibit with a few SCA volunteers the week of September 24th. Monika Wright, SCA will be photographing the artwork at the Halifax Club and it will be posted on the SCA website in the near future along with the Artists Exhibition Catalogue. Jacqueline Steudler, SCA has agreed to be the official photographer at the opening.

This exhibit is also featured on the national Culture Days website www.culturedays.ca/en.

Associate News

Margaret Walsh Best's, Associate interest in plants led her across the Atlantic Ocean for a third exhibition in Ireland this summer. "The Ireland Newfoundland Trail: A Journey of Plants & People", with Margaret as curator as well as exhibitor, was an exploration of the plants and the people involved in the migration of the Irish to Newfoundland and was celebrated through a collaboration of visual artists from both islands which have a long shared history.

The exhibition was mounted at Garter Lane Art Gallery on O'Connell Street, in the city of Waterford, Ireland, with His Excellency, Loyola Hearn, Canadian Ambassador to Ireland, officiating at the opening. Following a talk at the opening, Margaret gave several arranged gallery tours and offered a workshop related to the theme of the exhibition. Combined with sketching and painting time and studio visits with Irish artists, the 'journey' to Ireland was very positive.

The exhibition came to a successful close on September 1st will be re-mounted in 2013 at the Newfoundland & Labrador Craft Council Gallery in St. John's, NL.

You can find more details and view the exhibition catalogue at www.margaretwalshbest.com.

"Ranunculus acris" by Margaret Walsh Best, Associate

Helen Opie, Associate spent September 6th to the 12th painting with a group of women in every kind of weather. Five of the days were spent painting on Brier Island.

SCA Website Update

The first set of the PHASE II SCA Web Site Updates are now in place. These changes and enhancements were recently implemented due to your helpful feedback from the "Use of Technology" survey.

- a randomized 5-image banner has been added to the SCA's Home page with links to the gallery pages.
- an integrated WordPress blog has been designed and is waiting in the wings!
- video capability from within the site has been added
- SEO (Search Engine Optimization) - Meta tags and keywords have been added to various pages including the individual artist's pages.
- all e-mail and web addresses on members' web pages have been placed behind an e-mail and web site label

If you have not uploaded your artists statement and one image (free) to the SCA web site we encourage you to do so.

Please contact:

webmaster@societyofcanadianartists.com

What's Up Next?

On-line payment functionality for a number of transaction types is being discussed at the board level with our web development company Rarii Communications as well as an on-line store for exhibitions. Please stay tuned!

Here's a big thanks to Andrew Sookrah for staying with us through these changes and offering on-going guidance!!!
